

PAKISTAN CABLES PLEDGES TO SUPPORT THE AGA KHAN CULTURAL SERVICE HERITAGE CONSERVATION EFFORTS

Pakistan Cables pledged to support the Aga Khan Cultural Service – Pakistan’s upcoming project on conservation of historical sites in Pakistan. As part of the project, internship opportunities are being offered by AKCSP to young graduates and students from the related fields of architecture, traditional engineering and construction techniques, material sciences, etc.

The students will be provided onsite and hand-on learning opportunities at the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Lahore Fort and the Walled City of Lahore, where AKCS-P is currently working to restore Mughal era Wazir Khan Mosque.

The Company’s support will help AKCS-P contribute effectively towards capacity building and transfer knowledge among the youth of Pakistan. Pakistan Cables has a track record of supporting activities to empower the youth through sharing knowledge.
